- Kenya – Country Brief

Kenya, officially known as the Republic of Kenya, is a country located in East Africa. It is the 26th most populous country in the world and 7th most populous in Africa, with a population of more than 54.9 million in the 2023 census. (Source: worldpopulationsreview.com)

Nairobi is the capital and largest city of Kenya, while the coastal city of Mombasa is the oldest, first capital and currently the second largest city. Kisumu City is the third-largest and also an inland port on Lake Victoria.

As of 2023, Kenya is the forth-largest economy in sub-Saharan Africa after Nigeria, South Africa and Ethiopia (Source: Africa.businessinsider.com).

It is bordered by South Sudan to the northwest, Ethiopia to the north, Somalia to the east, Uganda to the west, Tanzania to the south, and the Indian Ocean to the southeast.

- Geography

Kenya is geographically diverse and is divided into 47 counties. Kenya's coastline falls on the Indian Ocean that contains East African mangroves swamps. South Sudan is situated at the northwest border of Kenya, Uganda at the west, Somalia at the east, Ethiopia at the north and Tanzania at the south.

Kenyan Rift Valley is located in the western and central Kenya. Central province is home to Mount Kenya, highest peak in Kenya and second highest peak in Africa; and Mount Elgon lies on the border between Kenya and its neighbouring country Uganda. Kakamega forest, situated in the western Kenya, is the only tropical rainforest of Kenya. The largest forest complex of East Africa is Mau forest.

A large number of Kenyans inhabit in the highlands, where the capital, Nairobi, sits at an altitude of 1,700 meters (5,500 feet).

The Great Rift Valley, a 6,400 kilometer tear in the earth's crust, is the place where Lake Turkana is situated. In this valley, the land of the west of Nairobi is descended.

- Political Scenario

Kenya is a unitary State that won its independence on 12th December, 1963 from the British. The country adopts parliamentary democracy. Its Parliament consists of two houses: the National Assembly and the Senate.

- The National Assembly consists of 349 members and an ex-officio Speaker. Out of these 349 members, 290 are elected by registered voters of single member constituencies; 47 women are elected by the registered voters of the counties and 12 are nominated by parliamentary political parties.

The members of the National Assembly are known as Members of Parliament (MP). They serve 5-year term.

- The Senate is formed of 67 members and the Speaker, an ex-officio member. Out of these 67 members, 47 are elected by the registered voters of the counties (each county constitutes a single member constituency); 16 women members are nominated by political parties; 1 man and 1 woman are elected; 2 members representing persons with disabilities (1 man and 1 woman) are elected.

The members of the Senate are known as Senators. They serve 5-year terms.

The executive is formed of the President of the Republic of Kenya, Deputy-President and the Cabinet Secretaries. With the approval of the National Assembly, the President shall nominate and appoint the Cabinet Secretaries. The President serves 5-year terms.

As required by the Constitution, Kenya has held all its general elections every 5 years, including presidential, parliamentary and local authorities, since its independence in 1963.

Dr. William Samoei Ruto is the current and the Fifth President of Kenya from 13th September, 2022. The Deputy President is Rigathi Gachagua.

Administrative divisions of Kenya

Kenya is divided into 47 counties namely: Baringo, Bomet, Bungoma, Busia, Elgeyo/Marakwet, Embu, Garissa, Homa Bay, Isiolo, Kajiado, Kakamega, Kericho, Kiambu, Kilifi, Kirinyaga, Kisii, Kisumu, Kitui, Kwale, Laikipia, Lamu, Machakos, Makueni, Mandera, Marsabit, Meru, Migori, Mombasa, Murang'a, Nairobi City, Nakuru, Nandi, Narok, Nyamira, Nyandarua, Nyeri, Samburu, Siaya, Taita/Taveta, Tana River, Tharaka-Nithi, Trans Nzoia, Turkana, Uasin Gishu, Vihiga, Wajir and West Pokot. - Economy

The largest economy in East Africa is that of Kenya. Post-independence, Kenya has been largely focusing on promotion of economic growth through public investment, agricultural production. Kenya provided incentives for private (also foreign) industrial investment. Kenya is also a hub of finance and regional transportation.

Over the last few years, Kenya has experienced continuous growth in GDP, supported by public and private sector investment, infrastructure projects and appropriate fiscal and economic policies.

Kenya has a well developed, vibrant and diversified financial sector. Kenya's banking sector is well capitalized. Over the last few years, inflation, exchange rates and interest rates have remained stable, leading to macroeconomic stability. The Government of Kenya, in 2007, announced a long-term plan called 'Vision 2030' to attain middle income status as a nation by 2030.

Agriculture and tourism are the top largest source of foreign exchange revenue in Kenya. Safaris through the 60 national parks and reserves have always been the main tourist attraction in Kenya. Apart from that Masai Mara (the 7th wonder of the world), colonial-era forts, historical mosques, Mount Kenya, Great Rift Valley, tea and coffee plantations, Mount Kilimanjaro (across the border into Tanzania) and the beaches etc. are included in the list of other attractions.

The principal cash crops are tea, coffee and horticultural produce. The two most valuable exportable products of Kenya are tea and horticultural produce. The agricultural sector contributes 33% of the total GDP of Kenya. More than 40% of the total population and more than 70% of the rural population in Kenya are employed in this sector.
